Date	Program	Speaker	Description
April 6	Right Plant, Right Place	Jay Weidner	A little pre planning will keep that lovely tree or shrub you planted from blocking your driveway or wrecking your house foundation.
April 13	Do you say Herbs or 'erbs?	Jenny Staton	Herbs, as well as life, can be beautiful! And you'd be surprised at how many different kinds thrive here. Jenny loves to cook and step outside her door for fixins'.
April 20	Put 'em Up!	Bob Guinn	Preserve nature's bounty. Literally. Or can it, freeze it or dry it. It's good to know what actually is in the food you prepare!
April 27	Veggies for the Ornamental Garden	Laura Lee Rose	So many veggies make beautiful plants as well as great eating. If you don't have room for a veggie garden, Laura Lee will let you know what you can tuck into your flower beds for beauty and bounty.
May 4	Lawn Alternatives	Joe Allard	Turf lawns are beautiful, but ecological thugs. There are other ways to make your landscape inviting. And less work.
May 11	Do You Know More Than You Know You Know?	Sandra Educate	Probably more fun than educational, this interactive class will challenge you! Prizes, too!
May 18	Fooling Mother Nature	Jay Weidner	She'll let you grow lots of plants that she didn't put here if you pay attention. Learn which ones to introduce and which to avoid.
May 25	Botany in the Produce Aisle	Victoria Bergesen	Learn the real back story behind the fresh fruit and vegetables that you find in the supermarket.
June 1	Ground Covers	Laura Lee Rose	The Good, the Bad and the Ugly! Things to know before introducing these workhorses into your garden
June 8	Palms for a Tropical Look	Lora Quincy	The care and feeding of these stately symbols of the tropics. Like humans, these palms live long enough to become very Senior Citizens, so keep them healthy.
June 15	Sedges and Ornamental Grasses	Natalie Bowie	These plants gain in popularity every year as new and more cultivars are introduced. Easy care and low maintenance, you need some in your landscape.
June 22	Pot et Fleur	Sandra Educate	French indoor garden décor that lets you successfully mingle fresh flowers with living plants.
June 29	Keeping it Growing	Amanda McNulty	Our signature season-end class. Join Amanda and a great panel to answer your gardening questions. And don't forget to wear an imaginative hat! .
